

AMERICAN COMPOSITES MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION

MANUFACTURER MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

MANUFACTURER MEMBERSHIP

Membership in ACMA is company-based and each business unit of your organization should be represented under a separate membership per the ACMA bylaws. ACMA defines a manufacturer as any person, company or corporation engaged in the manufacture of composites products sold into the composite supply-chain, included reinforced polymer composites or cast polymer, that perform composites manufacturing processes, including but not limited to hand lay-up, spray-up, compression molding, pultrusion, vacuum infusion processing, or other variations of manufacturing processes.
